SANTA FE
There is no other city in the world like Santa Fe.
• Founded in 1610 as provincial capital.
• Mountains on east (Sangri de Cristo) & west (Jemez)
• Artist center of the U.S.
• Adobe style architecture
• Many buildings at or near 400 years old – San Miguel Mission Church; “the Oldest House”; Governor’s Palace.
• Abundant Spanish & Indian culture, art and museums.
Downtown is a grid of narrow streets and alleyways radiated out from the central plaza, with a plethora of shops, restaurants, art galleries and museums forming a downtown core meant to be strolled.

Day 3, Wed., Oct. 18 – Santa Fe – Morning guided tour of this 400 plus year old capital city. Afternoon free for shopping and exploring.

Day 4, Thurs., Oct. 19 – Santa Fe - Taos – Today we visit Taos and area. We see the famous 1000-year old Taos Pueblo, Kit Carson Home and Museum and Rio Grande Gorge and Bridge.

Day 5, Fri., Oct. 20 – Santa Fe – A free day for independent activities. Several great museums available.

Day 6, Sat., Oct. 21 – Santa Fe – Tour pre-historic Indian dwellings at Bandelier National Monument, and more.

Day 7, Sun., Oct. 22 – Wichita Falls, Texas – Today we motor coach toward home by way of Amarillo.

Day 8, Mon., Oct. 23 – Home by way of Dallas and Shreveport.
