Antique and Flea Market week (one of the largest in the country.)

Day 1, Tuesday, Mar. 27 – San Antonio – Early morning departure from Zachary and Baton Rouge. Take I-10 to San Antonio, with pickups along the way. Tonight, enjoy the Riverwalk and an included boat ride. Hotel near Riverwalk.

Day 2, Wednesday, Mar. 28 – Fredericksburg – Morning tour of the Alamo and Imax show. Visit Market Square (El Mercado) area. Afternoon drive through the “Hill Country” to historic Fredericksburg for two nights.

Day 3, Thursday, Mar. 29 - Fredericksburg – Morning countryside visit includes view of Enchanted Rock, a massive dome of solid pink granite, the scenic Willow City Drive. Mid-day in Fredericksburg for lunch, sightseeing and shopping. Afternoon visit to the nation’s largest working wildflower farm. We visit Luchenback, a tiny place known world-wide.

Day 4, Friday, Mar. 30 – Austin – Morning in Fredericksburg for shopping and a visit to their great World War II museum. Afternoon visit to the LBJ Ranch (President Lyndon Johnson) with a visit to the Texas Whitehouse. Tonight an included dinner at the famous Salt Lick BBQ – nothing like it.

Day 5, Saturday, Mar. 31 – Home - Short morning drive to Roundtop Antique and Flea Markets spread out for many miles. Several hours to shop and browse before driving home, arriving in Baton Rouge around 8 p.m.

WILD FLOWERS OF TEXAS – Every spring thousands from all over go out on the highways and byways of Texas to view the splendor of the blossoms of wild flowers. Indian Paintbrush (Castilleja spp), Black-eyed Susans (Rudbeckia Hirta), Texas Bluebonnets, (Lupinus texensis), and many other wildflowers dot the landscape. The primary flower, the main flower, the state flower of Texas, is the Texas bluebonnet. (Weather can have an effect on the flowers – no guarantees.)
