A MUST VISIT

This museum is considered one of the best WWII Museums in the USA that every American should see.

Much has been added. See the two newest presentations (both are great), plus an inspirational movie.

◆ ROAD TO BERLIN – Opened 2014

◆ ROAD TO TOKYO – Opened 2015

Itinerary

7:00 a.m.	Depart Zachary, LA (First Baptist Church).
7:30 a.m.	Depart Baton Rouge (Albertson's @ I-10 & College Drive)
7:45 a.m.	Arrive McDonald's – enjoy a brief breakfast time
8:10 a.m.	Depart McDonald's @ I-10 & Siegen Lane
8:30 a.m.	Depart Cracker Barrel in Gonzales @ Tanger Mall
9:30 a.m.	Arrive WWII Museum for 5 ½ hour visit.

Explore the museum from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Begin with the new portion – a major new building was added in 2014 that offers much to see. The all new first floor is called “Road to Berlin” and is a “walk-through” with the 11 major World War II events in Europe. The second floor is “Road to Tokyo”. Enjoy an inspirational film called “Beyond All Boundaries” by Tom Hanks. Also visit the new building with aircraft.

Continue your self-guided tour of the museum's original building on the 2nd and 3rd floor for a D-Day presentation. See a model of the beaches of Normandy with the relative positions of the number of aircraft and amphibious vehicles.

After departing the museum at 3 p.m., we drive directly back to Baton Rouge and Zachary.
