Day 1, Thursday, Nov. 29 – Morning motor coach from Zachary, Baton Rouge and Gonzales to New Orleans (or other home airports). Arrive in New York mid-afternoon. Transfer by private motor coach to 1st class Times Square hotel, our home for three nights. We do a walking tour of the area, including the Rockefeller Center with its Christmas tree and lights. Instead of a walking tour, you might choose to enjoy the hotel and Times Square area. Tonight at leisure.

Day 2, Friday, November 30– “Good Morning America” show is possible. Then 9 a.m. guided city tour on a private covered bus takes us by Madison Square Garden, Greenwich Village, Chinatown, Wall Street, Brooklyn Bridge, Fifth Avenue, World Trade Center Memorial, Central Park, and more. Tonight we attend the fabulous Rockette's Christmas Show.

Day 3, Saturday, December 1 – This morning's sightseeing is to the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island. In the afternoon you might do optional visit to the Empire State Building Observation for a spectacular view of the city and area (adult -$32, senior - $29) or a walk in Central Park, or visit the Metropolitan Museum of Art (adult -$25, senior - $17). Tonight you will attend a play of your choice. Transportation to the play will be on your own, most theaters are within easy walking distance or short taxi ride from our hotel. Play choices may not be available at time of booking. Some suggestions or go to www.broadway.com for current choices.

Lion King
Aladdin
Wicked

Beautiful
Jersey Boys
Something Rotten

Matilda
Finding Neverland
Tuck Everlasting

Day 4, Sunday, December 2 – There is a Catholic church and Protestant church within 2 blocks for those who desire. Mid-day departure from hotel to airport for flight home. Upon arrival in New Orleans (approximately 6:00 p.m.), board motor coach for home.

New York City is a fabulous place to visit. The things that interest tourists are centrally located and easy to find. Most are within walking distance of our hotel. Manhattan is laid out as a perfect grid and it is nearly impossible to get lost. There is so much to do and you may use your time as you choose. Some optional suggestions are:

- Visiting some of the world's greatest museums – Metropolitan, Natural History, Frick, Guggenheim
- Walking around – Central Park, Rockefeller Center, Lincoln Center, Grand Central Terminal
- Shopping – Upper end and bargain. We will be within walking distance of Saks, Tiffany's, Macy's, etc.
